Doglaw Seminar Programme

The Governments' changes to doglaw have now come into force but the question is whether they are going to have an impact on promoting responsible dog ownership. Is it merely going to punish after the event rather than have any preventative effect.

This cost effective course, presented by Solicitor Trevor Cooper in his usual informal, informative and entertaining style is aimed at professionals and others who deal with dogs on a daily basis.

This course will cover:-

- The law on ownership
- The new microchipping regulations (to include the responsibility of breeders and rescues) and collar/tag
- The law on strays
- Licensing of breeders
- Dangerous Dogs Act 1991
  - ◇ Dogs dangerously out of control (to include the 2014 amendments)
  - ◇ Breed specific legislation (to include the 2015 changes to the exemption scheme)
- Nuisance dogs
- Community Protection Notices
- Public Spaces Protection Orders

Registration and coffee will be from 9.30am with the seminar commencing at 10am and due to finish around 4pm. Lunch, beverages, notes and a certificate of attendance are all included.

Programme timings are approximate. Content is subject to change.
