

DOGS – KEEPING THE PEACE

TUESDAY 20TH JANUARY 2015

PENNS PLACE, PETERSFIELD, HAMPSHIRE GU31 4EX

9.00AM-4.30PM

East Hampshire District Council is pleased to offer colleagues a seminar that will look at the problems and issues associated with irresponsible dog ownership in a variety of forms such as attacks on Assistance Dogs and the issues associated with Status Dogs and Weapon Dogs. The seminar will also look at Best Practice for local authorities and other organisations regarding access considerations for dogs when planning new developments or for when looking at dog control in the community.

After lunch, dog law expert Trevor Cooper will look at new developments in dog law and how the Anti Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014 can be used to address irresponsible dog ownership that affects the local community and environment. Trevor will also be discussing the forthcoming compulsory microchipping regimes for Wales and England as well as partnership working opportunities between Dogs Trust and local authorities and other organisations.
